

Amber L. Frampton

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am an experienced teacher of English as a Second Language looking for new international opportunities in the field, with extensive involvement in language education, human resource development, and the promotion of reading and clear writing. I strive to promote learning and team building based on human relations and scientific research.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assessor

Beijing, China

First Leap English School

November 2014 - November 2015

- Traveled to different learning centers to assess and report the teaching skills of fellow teachers.
- Performed research on child psychology and educational development to improve both my skills and those of others.
- Developed projects pertaining to corporate structure.
- Acted as social media manager for the company.

E.S.L. Teacher

Beijing, China

First Leap English School

November 2012 - November 2015

- Taught English through different subjects to small groups of young learners.
- Provided demo lessons to potential new customers.
- Developed lesson improvements and handcrafted materials for engaging lesson plans.

EDUCATION

BA in American Literature

Marlboro, Vermont, USA

Marlboro College

Graduated 2012

- Writing Tutor. Three years of experience in one-on-one lessons with fellow students to strengthen their writing skills, including spelling, grammar, syntax and overall language cohesion.

High School Diploma

Oakland, California, USA

Castlemont Senior High School

Graduated 2008

- Children's Room Assistant - Trenton Public Library. Volunteered for duties that included reading to children, helping them choose appropriate books for their reading level and providing a human, friendly and approachable face for young users of this institution.
- Social Services Volunteer – Hungarian Gypsy Missions International. Helped improve social skills, general knowledge and English skills of Roma children in the city of Mezőtúr, Hungary.

Additional Skills

Working command of the MS Office suite. Excellent and diverse manual skills. Basic Mandarin Chinese and Spanish.

REFERENCES

Cory Heselton - Head of the International Department. First Leap Co., China. cory.heselton@firstleap.cn